Class History

Thirteen years ago this year, the fate of the nation was to be decided. First, because we had just plunged into the most deadly war in our history and, second, because we, forty-one frightened wide eyed youngsters, started out schooling at "Dear Old Centerville." Our future life patterns were to be laid here, and the destiny of the nation therefore depended upon our progress.

Of the forty-one, sixteen are to be graduated from C.H.S. this year. They are: Brian Dailey, Gary Hibberd, Leroy Reese, Farrell Riddle, Eugene Tullis, Mary Gretchen Will, Jane Burnet, Jane Burnff, Nancy Miller, Sherry Urschel, Bill Magsig, Kathleen Bradford, Eileen Reese, Carolyn Bradley, Damon Whitmore, Carolyn Duncan, and Marian Easton. Bill and Gary went to war this year, too, by hurling no less than milk bottles at each other. Barb added much chaos this year by cutting Bill's suspenders and blaming it on Gary.

The very next year, Melvin Rose came to us and helped us enjoy playing Post Office (with letters). Also this year we became accomplished musicians in the toy band.

In the Third Grade Gretch and Brian left us and missed our blissful singing and the frequent visits behind the piano.

Gretch returned in the Fourth bringing Martha Brent with her and helped us struggle through that worldly stuff called geography. Boots and a missing member collided on the monkey bars this year, and Boots emerged victorious, with a mere scratch.

In the Sixth, Brian once again joined us. Nancy Davis and Margie Huff also made their entrance this year and helped us enjoy standing for long periods with our noses in the ring on the board. We had gained much intelligence this year over the past one, shown by the fact that we fought on the winning side in the snowball fights of the season.

The next year the boys learned to love, and we showed our deepest affections for Miss Leichty by kissing her when she passed under the mistletoe on the door frame.

We lost Gretch again in the Eighth Grade.

The very next year she came back with Rosalie Zengel and Carolyn Rosener. This year was our first in high school, so naturally we felt very grown up. Sports were all-prevalent, but we still had time to fight numerous "rubber gun" fights under the brilliant leadership of our famous red-headed general. This year the joy of skipping classes was discovered along with a few other unmentionables.

Our Sophomore year we had a red-hot English teacher with a distinct eastern accent. Betty Meats and Jack Huffman came along to help us pester him.

Earl Williamson, Gerry Puckett, and Natalie Nutt all arrived in our Junior year to help us round out the year with our immortal Junior Class play "What a Life." In the Spring we were seen hauling priceless dogwood trees through Centerville to the Wishing Well Inn where we gave the Seniors of 1953 "Stairway To The Stars," a prom never to be forgotten.

In our last mellowing year of high school we gained two personalities: Jerry and Bernard Martin. In this our last year at C.H.S., we have sobered to our magnificent goal ahead, which will take more work than we have yet experienced to reach.

Our last three years we were guided by Coach Howe, to whom we all owe a debt of gratitude.

Now as we are about to step into the world, a lump rises in our throats as we realize that our past frivolities will never again be equalled. We hope that our friends in the future will be as true as those we have gained in school. We see now that all our past experiences in school have been pointed toward this end and very necessary to the fulfillment of our purpose so far in life.

Class Will

I, Nancy Lou Miller, will my privilege of typing Miss Schneider's tests to Hazel Benbow.

I, LaGrange Damon Whitmore, Jr., will my success in pleasing Mr. Buriff with my calculating ability to Pat Collins.

I, Rosalie Dolores Zengel, will my "angelicness" to Barbara Paul.

I, Geraldine Ruby Puckett, will my talkativeness to Jane Keck.

I, Margie Irene Huff, will my laugh to Phyllis Lindamood.

I, Kathleen Marie Bradford, will my skating and swimming ability to June Miller.

I, Jane Frances Buriff, will my leadership to Phyllis Lutes.

I, Brian Gates Dailey, will my football ability to Dick Weinland.

I, Sherry Jane Urschel, will my love for school and my ability to get along with certain teachers to the Reber twins.

I, Martha Jean Brent, will my phlegmatic disposition to Carolyn Harris.

I, Catolyn Jean Rosener, will my American-French accent to Liz Hathaway.

I, William Hufford Magsig, will my infamous No. 37 and my place on the All-County team to my buxom buddy, Jerry Dale Lambert.

I, Eugene Earl Tullis, will my high-jumping ability to Terry Yeazel.

I, Charles Farrell Riddle, will my "jerked-up" collar to Dick Boyle.

I, Earl William Williamson, will my incentive for learning to Howard Stoter.

I, Melvin Lynn Rose, will my "little black book" to Ray Goins.

I, Leroy Linton Reese, will my speed to Ted Colbert.

I, John David Huffman, will my ability to talk my way out of trouble to Wilbur.

I, Marian L. Easton, will my job in the office to Mary Wight.

I, Gary Louis Hibberd, will my ability to tell my "closest one" the truth to Marcia Ballard.

I, Carlyn Ann Bradley, will my cheerleading to Marcia Livingston.

I, Nancy Oletta Davis, will my natural wave to Deanna Kennard.

I, Alphretta Eileen Reese, will my baton to Martha Wear.

I, Carolyn Jane Duncan, will my typing speed to any Junior who needs it.

I, Natalie Laura Nutt, will my knee socks to Judy Pease.

I, Jerome Thomas Martin, will my talents to Fred Lacy on the condition that he will pay me first.

I, Bernard Joseph Martin, will my knack for breaking my bones to Donald Yates.

I, Mary Gretchen Will, will my seventh grade boyfriends to Susan Touschard.

I, Betty Mae Mears, will my freckles to Nancy Howe.

I, Jane Marie Burnet, will my extra drumsticks to the percussion section.
